

NATIONAL COMMUNICATIONS AUTHORITY

Three Institutions Pay Courtesy Visit to NCA's Acting Director General

On February 19, 2025, the National Communications Authority (NCA) hosted courtesy visits from the Ghana Independent Broadcasters Association (GIBA), the Ghana Chamber of Telecommunications, and ATC Ghana at the NCA Tower. The delegation met with the Acting Director General, Rev. Ing. Edmund Yirenkyi Fianko, to congratulate him on his appointment and discuss key issues affecting the telecom and broadcasting industries.

ATC Ghana

The six-member delegation was led by Ashutosh Singh, the CEO of ATC.

Ghana Chamber of Telecommunications

The meeting was attended by key industry executives, including MTN Ghana CEO, Stephen Blewett; Leo Skarlatos, AT CEO; Patricia Obo-Nai, Telecel Ghana CEO; Ashutosh Singh, ATC CEO; Estelle Akofio-Sowah, CSquared West Africa Regional Manager; and Richard Kweku Arthur, Ericsson Ghana Country Manager.

Ghana Independent Broadcasters Association (GIBA)

The meeting was attended by the GIBA President, Mr. Cecil Thomas Sunkwa-Mills; Dr. Chief P. A. Crystal-Djirackor, Chairman of the GIBA Council of Elders; Gloria Hiadzi, Executive Secretary; and Kwame Adu-Mante, Executive Member.

